

Changelog MONITOR Web shop version 2.36.1

- 1175 It could be a problem when changing your delivery address, if you have if you have multiple ones when placing an order.
- 1180 Increased the validation when changing the e-mail address for users.
- 1181 Webshop visitors is no longer able to search and find parts they do not have access to.
- 1254 The price for the configuration will be correct if there is a discount on a part in an option list.
- 1255 There could be a display error for the price on each row in the Confirmation view.
- 1268 A phrase error is fixed in the Product configurator.
- 1269 An error could occur when changing language on the Category page.
- 1272 Resolved an issue where the configurator would stop working if no option was selected in an option list.
- 1273 Max and min value of a numeric variable will be displayed in the Product configurator.
- 1284 The cache wasn't purged properly when saving the part menu.
- 1291 Option lists are now hidden dependent on if the code is enclosed by <> instead of the description.

- 1292 A new setting for displaying thumbnail images in the Product configurator is added.
- 1293 Now extra descriptions for options in option lists the Product configurator.
- 1296 Now extra fields for a part in option lists in the Product configurator can be displayed.
- 1298 Option lists for the Product configurator can be displayed as in the G4 Web shop.
- 1307 The setting Open in a new tab is now working as intended.
- 1310 Under certain conditions the part price, order total, and VAT amount could be calculated incorrect.

- 1312 The "/" character is removed from the address for standard pages (for instance "/shop").
- 1337 Resolved a display issue with addresses in the order header.
- 1342 Nestled section are now displayed properly.
- 1365 Resolved an issue that caused a program error on the page My orders.
- 1377 A language issue could cause an error with the e-mail template used when creating an account for the user.